Lockridge Grindal Nauen hires Leslie Rosedahl as Director of Communications and Grassroots Advocacy

(Minneapolis) – Ted Grindal, Partner and head of the firm’s State and Federal Government Relations practice along with Rebecca Klett, Director of State Government Relations at Lockridge Grindal Nauen, today announced Leslie Rosedahl will join the firm as Director of Communications and Grassroots Advocacy. She will start at the end of September.

“I am extremely pleased to welcome Leslie to the Lockridge Grindal Nauen Government Relations team. She will be a tremendous asset to our team in leading our communications and grassroots advocacy efforts for clients,” said Grindal.

Ms. Rosedahl comes to LGN after serving as Director of Public Affairs for the Minnesota Senate Republican Caucus where she was responsible for developing and implementing all caucus messaging. She was a chief advisor to the Senate Republican Leader and oversaw caucus communications and research department efforts.

Prior to the Senate, Ms. Rosedahl spent six years developing and executing a variety of public affairs strategies for a diverse range of clients with grassroots engagement, issue advocacy and media relations in six Midwestern states, including Minnesota.

Ms. Rosedahl graduated with a Bachelors of Arts from Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minnesota and majored in political science. She resides in St. Paul.

Established in 1978, Lockridge Grindal Nauen is a Minnesota-based law firm that houses one of the largest bipartisan government affairs groups in the state with offices in Minneapolis, MN and Washington, DC. LGN offers comprehensive legal, government relations, grassroots advocacy and communications services from the Courtroom to the Capitol.
